

Outer Personality (45/9): Your OP signifies the ability to forgive and forget easily. Others see you as an idealist and romantic. You use your personality to express the idea that the progress of the world justifies personal sacrifice. Allowing emotions to become overwhelming can make you susceptible to others woes and lead to bitter disappointments. Fashion choice is artistic, but smooth and comfortable. Beautiful of face and figure, taking care of skin and posture can keep youthful looks. This is a highly sensitive and mystical number. Worldly success will not satisfy without higher psychic development. The ability to empathize is strong which leads to the desire to work with others and often leads to leadership and teaching roles. Ambitious with a receptive attitude allows many breakthrough opportunities but this drive can be detrimental as a tendency to overwork is there too.

There is conflict between emotions and common sense! Do not go to extremes in pursuit of ideals! Emotional discord only happens when dwelling on the past! The past is merely stepping stones and teaching tools. Look to what is there for resources and do not dwell on what is not there or has been lost. Stressful situations are to be transformed into valuable lessons. Tarot (5 of Cups): The lesson here is about moving on. Within your grasp is all that is needed, you only need to look and decide. Do not waste time regretting- learn, let go and move on. 10' Scorpio: Relentless determination to seek goals. The ability to bounce back and work on tirelessly, desiring to change things for the better is strong. Ts'ui (Gathering Together): Indicates the condition of union or gathering together. With the utmost filial piety, he presents his offerings to the spirits of his ancestors (his old self/past self/eternal self?). The superior man has his weapons put in good repair, to be prepared against unforeseen contingencies.

Soul (25/7): Okay, the OP said my character may marry young and produce many children. The soul # (hard 7) indicates living alone and unmarried. I believe that my OP expresses my easily finding love and commitment and my joy with and around children (none of which happened young). My soul likes quiet and is secretive (second mention of that already). True nature is to be calm, develop depth of character and thus benefit humanity through philosophy. The 25/7 emphasizes intuition and the ability to dream prophetically. What others see as intuition I see as acute observation and attention to details, allowing the ability to piece together the whole picture at an accelerated rate. Unused, this ability can turn challenges into conflicts. Mention of being a spiritual crusader, missionary zeal. Remain alert to the various ways, not only one or few, to overcome obstacles. When experiencing the negative vibration, conflict and loss of energy become the rule. Laxity and unfulfillment can beget cruelty. Knight of Wands: The knight is dressed and riding to conquest, ready to begin and to win. His crusade could be a search for the truth since his weapon is the staff of divine power. The salamander on his robe indicates the ability to handle fiery energy. Spring (Aries/Taurus/Gemini): K of Wands rules over spring, from Aries to 0 degrees of Cancer. This is why Spring is the beginning of so much newness. There can be difficulties as I strive to meet the sun's promise, but perseverance brings success. Wu Wang (Correctness): Great progress and success- advantage in being firm and correct. If its subject and its action are not correct, he will fall into error and it will be no advantage to him to move in any direction. Remember- this is a Soul number and this is an expression of a quality of the long soul. Do not get overzealous of these reminders in the present- they are to remind you of how to behave over the long run.

Life Lesson (56/11): Altruism/Community A testing incarnation. 11 is a master vibration and the demand for high standards is constant. Patience with an ability to make quick decisions is challenging (and paradoxical). A large lesson is to seek balance with material and physical with the spiritual and inspirational. Astronomy, lasers, kirlian photo, electronics (all fields of science re: energy) and theology, theology research, interpreter, teacher/writer of philosophy, inspirational speaking etc. all fit. Courage, power, strong feelings of leadership and talent. This can all go to your head- watch that fame and/or fortune does not cloud the important life-of-service. Continue to base decisions on intuition founded through reason. Strife is distasteful and I should learn to create harmonious conditions in the midst of chaos. Maintain flexibility and agreeableness with others. Learn to be affectionate with family. Be aware of opportunities to be sympathetic and responsive to the troubles of others. Indication that military and gov't. officials could be in my circle of friends (can't imagine). Keep in tune to what the public needs and how to bring it to them. It is an inherent talent and should be used. When the negative is expressed, indecisiveness is the rule. Bad associations and trouble is the result and counter productive (don't I know it!). Two of Swords: Dressed in white (spiritual purity is to be achieved), hair black (lack of light- or any quality which means open to all), tied with the white band of wisdom (unify all under this quality). The figure is in perfect balance: the moon above (subconscious) and the rocks around (stability- that which is permanent and decided upon by the conscious). Seated on a cube of stone (firm foundation of convictions) 10' Libra: Balance/Justice. Remove stress and strife from my life whenever possible. It is not conducive in a most severe way. Lu (56)(Traveling Stranger): Some little attainment/progress- if the traveler be firm and correct as he ought to be- good fortune. T'ai (Peace-11): We see the little gone and the great come. There will be good fortune with progress and success. Destiny (70/7): Destined to be a teacher of ethics. Psychically able to separate the true from the false and can discover and reveal some of the mysteries of life to a waiting world. Thinker, philosopher, scientist, mystic, zealot. Strange and difficult to understand, yet sought out for counsel by others. By example, public image could benefit community/world. Strength is found in solitude, wisdom in moments of silence. Develop mental powers so the world can share. The 7 allows good fortune in business and allows partnerships. The 0 provides divine protection. Much here about commercial viability- maybe need to pay attention to earlier note about keeping my finger on the pulse of the public wants and needs. Consider a commercial approach to a divine message? A way to reach many? It is through self governing of my own emotions that I will bring the message of control and peace to others. Travel is noted here, as is messages and exchanges with others being a vehicle to communicate my work. Don't forget to work AND to play. The negative rule here is pretense and instability, not being able to handle more than one thing at a time (I could never survive in my world that way) especially if conflicting inside. A good indication of this is many ups and downs and being moody. Two of Pentacles: The figure juggles the coins (pentacles) with the energy of the lemniscate holding them together. The need here is one of balanced and continuous activity rather than struggles and strains to maintain the suspension of what is in the air at any time. The ships in the background mean prosperous ventures. The figure's garment is leather, durable and is good use and dominance of the animal kingdom. 10' Capricorn: Ambition blends with diplomacy with endurance and perseverance as attributes to fuel and use. Shih (The Army): Firmness and correctness and a leader of age and experience there will be good fortune and no error. The nourishment and education of the people is the best way to have good soldiers ready for use in an emergency. Is this a general ideal or a specific one? I must think more on this.

Nine Year Cycles:

0-9(19/1): I entered this life with good intentions and good vibrations of prosperity and happy reunions. It seems my last incarnation was maybe not so tragic, but something I didn't get quite right and I was determined to start anew without too much time lapsing. I chose this one (with some astral corrections to the previous) to overcome obstacles and have life force energy to support me. The issue of choice makes itself very clear in the beginning. The Sun: Regeneration, as we renew our bodies, so we renew our minds. The nude child is a symbol of the naked truth and understanding. Mars (& Sun): Clear messages here about 'letting your light shine', reflecting the energy drawn and given back to the world and back to the self. Lin (approach): Action must be controlled and governed for success.

9-18 (3): Many past problems are forgotten and a period of joy and learning here. There were opportunities to grow and become active in groups, travel and meet people. I must have missed it and done the negative 3 instead which warns of drug consumption, over indulgence and exhausting valuable inner resources turning potentially fertile soil to wasteland. Some learning here too though, even if it was arrested development. The Empress: Represents subconscious mind. It seems that life forces were on my side and as I was slipping down and away, I was also receiving vast knowledge and wisdom from my dreams, subconscious and super-conscious, which was probably the only way to reach me then. Jupiter (& Venus): It is this influence that saw me become the advisor and friend to the many I knew who sought me out. Chun (Initial Difficulty): The superior man sees the danger and avoids it. I do not believe I did.

18-27 (14/5): Active sexual principle, pregnancy, competition, a need to verify. Warnings about promiscuity and over abundant sexual appetites. It says that the sexual principle is fertile and can bring about pregnancy (which it did) or the creative act may be channeled to bring about a product of the mind (which it also did!).

Competition is a force here (Rick). Powers of persuasion are heightened.

Temperance: Establish the foundations of your belief system through verification! Keywords verification and wrath show that the desire to find the truth surfaces from within, through wrath, not temper, but stern and strong anger. The fiery life force brings elevated states of consciousness. This key tells you to verify your destiny as a manipulator of the life power, Kundalini. This should be verified by actual practice until I feel the presence within!

Mercury (& Sag): The things of the Earth (4) must be understood as manifestations of pure energy (1), unless we can consciously direct our mental energies (Mercury), towards a deeper understanding of this concept (Sag) we cannot hope to develop. This is a testing period of opportunities. The experiences here are for a definite reason and should be learned, used and accumulated. Strong anger is diluted- tempered- with other qualities such as forgiveness or compassion or understanding... Ta Yu (Abundance): Great success. The superior man represses what is evil and gives distinction to what is good. I did this! When you get right down to it, I decided then to walk away and try for more and not succumb to the evils around me. I struggled but I still made a choice! All was well and I was doing the right things, finding the power to change and be more!

27-36 (20/2): Turning points, decisions, awareness, reconstruction, adaptability.

36-45 (20/2): 18 years of a 20/2 cycle. Hmm, 18 years of raising a child to adult age. It seems I'm not going anywhere soon, at least not till this child raising thing is over. Okay, good, I like that idea. It keeps things simple and fairly defined and I am proud to do it. Makes my focus a little narrower and more concentrated. It says that a 'sudden event' may require me to make a decision that could be a turning point. No fuckin' around there! There is emphasis here on germination of future plans and realizations. It is a 'fine planning period' and it says to come to reasoned conclusions and the cyclical force will see my plans manifested soon (is 18 years soon?). Doing this is fulfilling the requirements of this period. Judgment: Tooth, Fang, Serpent. A slow erosion of falsehoods and false ideals, wisdom destroys the forms of the outer world to reveal the true essence of things to prepare for absorption of the spiritual essence. (Oh patience, please give me such sweet patience!). Once things breakdown and are revealed, a unity with the universal intelligence occurs, beginning with a true grasp of the real world and the realization of the identity (of self and all) with the One Source. Judgment day is the day we judge true from false. Gabriel calls to all who will hear the truth, the bodies in their tombs (Billy- stuck in his apt and needing help!) arising to the call. The 3 states of consciousness arise: Man (consciousness), Woman (sub-consciousness), Child (Super-Consciousness). The trinity is made real and the trinity must be complete and I should look more to Brandon for my own release (and Janete too? I do not want to put that on her, as much as I am hopeful and desirous of us being together for the rest of our lives together, but can she be part of my trinity? Can the three of us (and her children for her) complete our own individual pyramids? Can we be each other's cornerstones?). Old decks have the rising beings spelling out the word LUX to show they have come to illumination. Vulcan (& Saturn): The decan here brings messages about keeping the pathway between the body and spirit alive and open. Health and pure body are integral to strength and pure mind. In 20, the God Power (0) works through Vulcan (2) to bring about the union of what appears to be- at least from a physical perspective- separate parts- spirit and matter. Kuan (20) (Contemplation): He should be like the worshipper who has made his ablutions (a cleansing with water or other liquid), but not yet his offering. With sincerity and dignity, he inspires trust and respect. Too good! Things making sense now! So much still needed to happen. Still time to plan and work and strive but no need to freak out over everything not happening tomorrow or today. I am making my ablutions, daily, but not made my offering yet- need to know the right thing- want it to be the perfect gift. K'un (2) (Receptive): K'un represents what is great and originating, penetrating, advantageous, correct and having the firmness of a mare. When the superior man has to make any movement, if he takes the initiative, he goes astray; if he follows he will find his proper lord. If he rests in his correctness and firmness- good fortune. Much to be said in the I-Ching about being firm and correct. Must work diligently to remove all self doubts and follow what I know to be true while surrendering to the greater intelligence. Must also be careful not to be too stubborn in my pursuits since I am not sure what the plan is yet. A difficult thing for me that will require much patience and faith. I will try.

45-54 (1): New beginnings, decisions, independence. May be going solo again. If not, will definitely need to be able to realize independent thought and self. Something to look towards and prepare for. There can be ways to maintain loving partnerships and still remain independent. It may just be about Brandon moving out or on at 18. This will be the time to really begin so much of what needs to be done. I will be allowed to initiate then, probably having gained the wisdom and power of unity to do so. Miracles can be performed now, perfect focus and control over all material affairs (that means perfect understanding of them!). Under the 1, I should remain aware that the results will be qualified by my true desires (must have perfect intention). Be cautious of impulsiveness. Equal partnerships may not be conducive to the work at hand. Avoid superficial relationships, there is no time or place for them. Indication of meeting a significant person in this period. Experiment with new and untried. Remain decisive and independent and above all- have the courage to act on dreams.

Magician: Time for the idea and goal to be brought down from heaven and made real here on earth. His posture shows he is merely an instrument, not the cause, as above, so below. Conscious mind has perfect control and the energies can be channeled at will. The magician has all the elements and their human counterparts, at his disposal; Cup (water/imagination), Sword (air/intellect), Pentacle (earth/body), Wand (fire/will). At this time, the God energy can be translated into the world of matter to bring about perfect manifestation and harmony. Mars (& Mercury): Mars is the fiery energy, the desire to create. Mercury is the mind, the tool that manifests. The fire is the inspiration and comes from above and must be enacted on by the mind. They shall work together when this time comes. When these energies come together, he has the vision to see what must be done and the strength and fortitude to do it. Ch'ien (Creative): Great and originating, penetrating, advantageous, correct and firm (sound familiar?). The method of Ch'ien is to change and transform. Conditions of great harmony are preserved in union. The superior man renews activity with untiring effort- advantageous to persevere. The relationship with what is great and originating must be penetrating and deep. This will make it advantageous. Solidify the relationship before this time is now.

Youth Square:

Power Square:

Wisdom Square:

This Year (39/12/3): Love, propositions, vacations. Thoughts of love dominate this period (profoundly!). A strong desire to share my warm and fuzzy side, devoted to the idea of sharing love. Friendships develop, one of which may grow to a deep bond of love! Messages and invitations of various kinds are possible and people seek you out to join in a project of goodwill. I may be offered a partnership or proposition (sounds good- when?). It is a leisure time and a good time to vacation, especially to places that reflect my contemplative mood. I do not feel hurried and this is a boon to the ability to rest, enjoy and feel good (it sounds so good even want to do it!).

Relaxation, love and affection are the goals of this romantic period. A negative vibration brings contracts and partnerships that should be carefully examined. There can be fraud and deceit and delays here are for the best (well, how the hell do I interpret that- which is it- good times and partners or bad?). Do for others now and the rewards will come back under this 'delightful' vibration. Knight of Cups: The knight approaches with his gentle offering (the cup) of peace and love. He is calm and peaceful. Summer (Cancer): I just can't miss here. Everything must smell like roses! And I was worried. This decan re-emphasizes the above conditions and ideals. Nothing left to do but smile, smile, smile. Stay affectionate and altruistic. Chien (Arresting Movement): Oh I can see where this is going. More relaxing and non-movement. But where is the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow? The bills must be paid and I see no tell of fortune here. Maybe it is too insignificant to worry about or mention. Back to I-Ching: chien indicates obstruction- the southwest furthers- the northeast does not further. It will be advantageous to meet with the great man (Lia? All those in power, god and myself?). In order to overcome the danger, it is important to take the self road (well that answers that- go see the higher self!). Oh, it said safe road. But I still take the sign. The superior man turns his attention to himself and molds his character. No mention of financial worries or change of residence. No news is good news. I am relieved.

August 2003 (47/11/2):

October 31, 1992: (65/11/2 for the month and 96/15/6 for the day): A master number vibration and an opportunity for advancement and to elevate my status. Influential people, especially of the opposite sex will help advance my position. Will have the power I desire in my chosen field. Share good fortune and be generous. Extravagance can lead to losses, so keep balanced. King of Pentacles: More about money and material gain but also can be interpreted as gaining of power and attributes that will be prosperous. 10' Capricorn: High and serious goals are expressed. T'ai (Peace): The little gone and the great come. 15/6: Indecision, bondage, freedom, laughter, discernment. Materialism is emphasized here. Long held views can change and it is important to decide whether current experiences are limiting or setting free. Do not chain yourself to people and be cautious of partnerships. Should have looked closer to see what was really happening (discernment). The Devil:
